SIC FAMA AD ASTRA.

The chef d'oeuvre of anecdotes, characteristic of Mr. John Drew, has just come to light apropos of Miss Louise Drew's present part of "Miss FLYNN AND JOHNSON DRAW Minety" in the new Ethel Barrymore play, "Her Sister". Miss Drew first she was one of the party that accompanied her father on the automobile tour through Italy last summer. Mrs. Drew was also of the party. As Charles Frohman had promised to dispatch the manuscript to Miss Drew as soon as it was put into form, careful pains were taken everywhere by the party to leave specific addresses for forwarding all mail from town to turbs sleep and rest. Quick relief

From Saranto to Orsanto is one of the finest tours known to any Italian traveler. It winds itself along a devious course, affording the most delightful, because the most unexpected, & sts. glimpses of the Mediterranean. It was this trip that Mr. Drew's family at Orsanto, where a rest might be had and where perhaps the delayed mails might catch them. Orsanto has, upon one of its hillsides, one of the most picturesque of Italian inns. It is conducted by a father and a son.

Addressing the son, in "his best Italian", Mr. Drew ordered lunch for the party and especially some fresh milk for Miss Drew. Something was muttered by the waiter as he served the lunch, but thinking it a bit of local obscure Italian, the remark went unanswered. Then it was that Miss Drew discovered the milk to be quite warm. The waiter was recalled and requested once more "in Mr. Drew's best Italian", to serve some ice.

The amazement of the party is better imagined than described when the waiter replied in emphatic "American English".

"Why, boss you might as well ask for a gold mine in this country as a chunk of ice."

Father and son, it turned out, had lived for years in New Orleans; had made their fortune there and returned to Italy to buy out the little inn that, from the earliest days, had always been the object of their greatest envy. The man tremendously interested Mr. Drew, who immediately felt kindly towards him, and, in fact, invited him to look him up if ever he came to

BLESSING

SHAKE WELL IN A BOTTLE-SPLENDID PRESCRIPTION FOR KIDNEY AND BLADDER TROUBLE AND RHEUMATISM

This is a simple home recipe now being made known in all the larger cities through the newspapers. It is intended to check the many cases of rheumatism, kidney and bladder trouble which have made so many cripples and invalids and weaklings of some of our brightest and strongest people.

The druggists here have been notified to supply themselves with Tallow-Prime, 5c; No. 2 and the ingredients, and the sufferer will have no trouble to obtain them. The boiled, 5-barrel lots, 53c; 1-barrel prescription is as follows: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Turpentine-In cases, 72c; in wood Compound Kargon, one ounce, and three ounces. Mix by shaking well in a bottle. The dose is one tea-

Recent experiments, even in severe ASTORIA because of its positive action upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys. It compels these most vital organs to filter from the blood and system the waste impurities and uric acid which are the cause of rheumatism. It cleanses the kidneys, strengthens them and removes quickly such symptoms as backache, blood disorders, bladder weakness, frequent wool, 30@40c; medium and long urination, painful, scalding and discolored urine. It acts as a powerful stimulant to the entire kidney and bladder structure, puts new life into them and invigorates the entire tract.

All the ingredients, states a well known local druggist, are of vegetable extraction, making it a safe and harmless prescription at any time.

Those who suffer and are accustomed to purchase a bottle of patent medicine should not let a little inconvenience interfere with making this

For Diseases of the Skin.

Nearly all diseases of the skin such as eczema, tetter, salt rheum and barbers' itch, are characterized by an intense itching and smarting, which often makes life a burden and dismay be had by applying Chamberlain's Salve. It allays the itching and smarting almost instantly. Many cases have been cured by its use. For sale by Frank Hart and leading drug-

"Oh, yes, I know you," the fellow said. And Mr. Drew waited to hear his name connected with one of his more famous characterizations.

"Yes, I remember your name," continued the innkeeper, in all seriousness. "You run a cigar factory over there, dont you?"

And visions of his bete noir, the signs painted "John Drew Five Cent Cigar", floated before the eyes of the star of "My Wife".
